ser2068 11 translated 28 drafted 1 untranslated 21 queries of 40 beads hide notes hide queries hide editor comments hide drafts untranslated only manuscript lines nastaʿlīq

"Ariza bukharskikh chinovnikov emiru o vspyshkakh epidemii kholery i ospy i ob''iavlenii karantina v khanstve," i126-1-1896-15 (serial 2068)

parent delo: ser635

Restructured into beads (src / tr / note) with the assistance of Opus 5.5, 2026-10-13. Transcription and existing translation untouched. "prelim (Opus 5.5)" = draft translation, not yet adopted. "QUERY (Opus 5.5)" = problem flagged for review; no change made.

SEAL

intitulatio `#seal`

COMMENT seal

01

عبد الله خواجه صدور [†1]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) ʿAbd Allāh Khwāja, [of the rank of] ṣudūr

[†1] Nasriddin thinks 1314 on the seal, which would be 1896-7

ELEVATIO `#wajib`

COMMENT elevatio - upper right

02

حضرت واجب الوجود

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) The Divine Presence, the Necessarily Existent

ELEVATIO `#amir`

COMMENT second elevatio

03

حضرت امیر المومنین جنابعالی سیدم و مولام سلمه الله تعالی

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) His Majesty the Commander of the Faithful, His Excellency my sayyid and my master, may God Most High preserve him

LEX حضرت امیر المومنین "Commander of the Faithful" — confirms addressee is the Bukharan Amir.

LEX سیدم و مولام "my sayyid and my master" — possessive doublet; سید works double (lord + sayyid lineage resonance).

GRAM سلمه الله تعالی "may God preserve him" — standard living-ruler elevation; Form II سلّم = to cause to be safe.

HEADING

invocatio

COMMENT invocatio

04

هو الفياض[1]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) He is the All-Bountiful

LEX هو الفياض "He is the All-Bountiful" (divine epithet, standard document opening).

05

بسم الله خير الاسمأ[2]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) In the name of God, the best of names

LEX بسم الله خير الاسماء "In the name of God, the best of names" — variant basmala; self-referential (God's name is itself the best of names); characteristic of Persianate chancery (vs. standard بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم).

SECTION

COMMENT main vertical column

salutatio

06

عرضه داشت بنده[1]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) The petition of the servant,

LEX عرضه داشت Top-tier petition genre; obligatory for addressing sayyids, ulama, khwajas (ser1259).

07 کمترین بنده گان حلقهٔ عبودیت و فرمان برداری بر گوش [1†] [2]و فروترین غلامان جان سپار راسخ الاعتقاد مرحمت معتاد غایه اطاعت بر دوش

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) the least of servants, the ring of servitude and obedience in his ear, and the most abased of slaves, soul-sacrificing, firm in faith, accustomed to [your] mercy, the utmost of obedience on his shoulder [if غاشیه: "the saddle-cloth of obedience on his shoulder"]

LEX کمترین بنده گان / فروترین غلامان Superlative self-abasement doublet ("lowliest of slaves / most abased of servants").

LIT حلقهٔ عبودیت و فرمان برداری بر گوش "ring of servitude and obedience in the ear" — slave's earring as emblem of total submission; well-attested literary motif; cf. Hafez, Ghazal 105: به غلامیِ تو مشهورِ جهان شد حافظ / حلقهٔ بندگیِ زلفِ تو در گوشش باد — in Hafez the beloved's own hair-curl is the earring; chancery version strips the erotic charge, retains the structural image.

LEX غایه اطاعت بر دوش "bearing the utmost obedience on the shoulder" — غایه (utmost/extreme degree) not غاشیه; ear/shoulder pairing frames total submission top to bottom.

LEX جان سپار راسخ الاعتقاد مرحمت معتاد "soul-sacrificing, firm in faith, accustomed to [your] mercy" — standard epithetic chain.

†1 for some reason I think that the ear ring has a connection to slavery, i.e. this is a metaphor for slavery, but am not sure

QUERY (Opus 5.5) غایه vs. غاشیه بر دوش. "غاشیه" (carrying the saddle-cloth on the shoulder) is a stock idiom of servitude and pairs conventionally with "حلقه در/بر گوش"; the note itself recognizes the ear/shoulder pairing. "غایهٔ اطاعت بر دوش" leaves nothing actually borne on the shoulder. Fairly confident غاشیه is the intended word (scribal or transcription); recheck image.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) Hafez ghazal numbering differs between Qazvini-Ghani and Khanlari; specify edition in the bibl.

08 [3]بموفق عرض بار یارفتکان

DRAFT (Opus 5.5), following the note's reading by way of the auspicious petition of those admitted to audience [at the court of]

LEX بموفق عرض باریافگان "the auspicious petition of those who have been granted court access" — بموفق from توفیق (divine auspice, not "in accordance with"); باریافگان = بار یافتگان (those granted audience), -ت dropped, known variant; frames petitioner as having legitimate court standing.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) transcription reads بار + unclear یارفتکان; note reads باریافگان. The next bead's note also reads کانِ معدلت, but the transcription has no کان (it has معدلت نشان, which the notes don't mention). If the final -کان of the flagged word is meant to supply کانِ, the letters don't account for both گان and کان. Either the transcription or the notes need adjusting; if both readings stay live, encode as alternative readings.

09

معدلت نشان خورشید توامان حضرت خلیفه الرحمن[14]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) His Majesty, bearing the mark of justice, twin of the sun, the Caliph of the Merciful

LEX کانِ معدلت "mine/source of justice" — standard honorific compound (cf. کانِ کرم, کانِ فیض).

LEX خورشید توامان "twin suns" — توامان (jointly/twin); hyperbolic solar epithet.

LEX خلیفه الرحمن "Caliph of the Merciful" — high Islamic legitimacy claim.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) see previous bead re کانِ معدلت vs. transcribed معدلت نشان.

QUERY (Opus 5.5), tentative خورشید توامان as compound adjective parallel to معدلت نشان suggests "twin to the sun / sun-twinned" (the ruler as the sun's equal) rather than "twin suns." Low-to-moderate confidence.

10

باعث الامن و الامان

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) cause of security and safety

11

محی مراسم عدل و احسان ماحی آثار الظلم و الطغیان[15]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) reviver of the rites of justice and beneficence, effacer of the traces of oppression and tyranny

LEX محی راسم عدل و احسان / ماحی آثار الظلم و الطغیان "reviver of the pillars of justice / obliterator of the traces of oppression" — antithetical pair standard in royal panegyric.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) transcription has مراسم; note has راسم. Neither means "pillars": مراسم = rites, customs, observances. One of the two needs correcting, and the gloss with it.

12

نتیجهٔ آل طه و یسن خلاصه و زبدهٔ اولاد حضرت سید المرسلین[16]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) scion of the family of Ṭā Hā and Yā Sīn, essence and cream of the offspring of His Holiness the Lord of Messengers

LEX نتیجهٔ آل طه و یسن "fruit of the family of Taha and Yasin" — طه and یسین are Quranic sura-names used as prophetic epithets; آل طه و یسن = Ahl al-Bayt = sayyid lineage; immediately reinforced by خلاصه و زبدهٔ اولاد حضرت سید المرسلین ("essence and cream of the Prophet's offspring") — confirms addressee claims sayyid descent.

13

سلوک کنندهٔ مسلک رسول رَبّ العالمین

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) follower of the path of the Messenger of the Lord of the Worlds

LEX سلوک کنندهٔ مسلک رسول رَبّ العالمین "follower of the path of the Messenger of the Lord of the Worlds."

14

عمدة السلاطین[17] قدوة الخواقین

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) Pillar of Sultans, Exemplar of Khaqans

LEX عمدة السلاطین / قدوة الخواقین "Pillar of Sultans / Exemplar of Khaqans."

15

شهنشاه عدالت آئین

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) King of Kings whose rule is justice

16

ظل الله[18] فی الارضین

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) Shadow of God on the earths

LEX ظل الله فی الارضین "Shadow of God in the Two Earths" — الارضین = dual of ارض; ر easily dropped in Nastaliq.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) unvocalized الارضین is ambiguous between the dual (al-arḍayn) and the irregular sound plural (al-araḍīn, as in rabb al-samāwāt wa'l-araḍīn); the plural is the formulaic reading (Lane, s.v. أرض). Suggest "Shadow of God on the earths/lands." Also: the "ر easily dropped" remark implies the manuscript differs from the transcription here; if so, record the actual reading.

17

بلطف و عنایت عمیم ↑wajib و بشرف دولت خیریت مشحون ↑amir [+1]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) by the grace and all-embracing favor of [the Necessarily Existent], and by the honor of the goodness-laden reign of [the Commander of the Faithful]

READING Two elevations encoded as `ptr` in document: one after عمیم (wajib), one after مشحون (amir).

LEX بشرف دولت خیریت مشحون "by the honor of the goodness-laden reign" — prepositional invocation framing the petition under the auspices of the amir's reign.

†1 elevatios invoked after عمیم and after مشحون

18 بصد هزار [9]بعجز و آداب و لوازم سر افکنده گی بامید قبول بنده گی چنین میرسانم که

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) with a hundred thousand [marks of] humility, courtesy, and the requisites of bowed-headedness, in hope that my servitude be accepted, I submit as follows:

SECTION

COMMENT inverted diagonal column

19 [11]صاحبا بنده نوازا

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) O master, cherisher of servants!

20 [12]تصدق سر مبارک جنابعالی سیدم شوم

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) May I be a sacrifice for the blessed head of His Excellency my master.

LEX تصدق سر مبارک جنابعالی سیدم شوم "may I be the sacrifice offered for my master's blessed head." تصدق from صدقه (alms/charity), root ص-د-ق — apotropaic logic: giving صدقه on someone's behalf ransoms them from harm; offering oneself as صدقه = "let misfortune fall on me instead." Doctrinal basis: hadith صدقة تدفع البلاء (Tirmidhi); see Amy Singer, Charity in Islamic Societies (Cambridge, 2008); Lane's Lexicon s.v. ص-د-ق.

LEX سر مبارک (blessed head) = metonymy for the person's life/vital force; most emphatic form of the formula. Not قربانی (slaughter-sacrifice) but redemptive ransom; parallel to فدایت شوم / قربانت شوم.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) as far as I know, "الصدقة تدفع البلاء" is proverbial and only weakly attested in that wording; Tirmidhi's version (Zakāt) reads "إن الصدقة لتطفئ غضب الرب وتدفع ميتة السوء". Verify against an edition before citing as Tirmidhi.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) two rescript milestones (this one, and xml:id="res" below). Presumably this marks the receipt formula and "res" the quoted content; if so, give them distinct types.

rescript

21 تبرکنامهٔ[3] عنبرین شمامهٔ هر انور جنابالیحضرتم بنام اینغلام نادان[4] سراپا عیب و نقصان شرف صدور یافته بوده است که باینحقیر ناتوان آمده[†1] رسید[5]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) The blessed letter of my Majesty, ambergris-scented [and] most radiant, had been honored with issuance in the name of this ignorant slave, all fault and deficiency, and it came and reached this weak and lowly one.

†1 yāfta-būda-ast: non-witnessed

QUERY (Opus 5.5) "هر انور" makes little sense; "مهر انور" (radiant seal), i.e. "the ambergris-scented blessed letter [bearing] the radiant seal," is plausible. Low-to-moderate confidence; recheck image.

22 دقعتاً بر خواسته تبرکنامهٔ مولایم را بدو دست آداب گرفته کحل البصر و تاج سر کرده بچشمان[6] خود مالیده از مضمون خیریت مشحون او که[†1]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) At once I rose, took my master's blessed letter in both hands with due courtesy, made it the collyrium of my eyes and the crown of my head, and rubbed it on my eyes. From its goodness-laden contents, [it became known] that:

†1 ritual of receiving a royal edict

QUERY (Opus 5.5) دقعتاً is presumably دفعتاً (at once); ق/ف slip in transcription or scribal.

rescript #res

23 بولایت کابل و هرات در ما بین مردم ناخوشی و لاحظی پیدا[7] شده وَبای سخت شده بوده است[†1] [†2]

In the provinces of Kabul and Herat, illness and has reportedly arisen among the people; a severe epidemic [cholera] has broken out.

†1 reporting cholera in Herat and Kabul

†2 shuda-būda-ast: non-witnessed

QUERY (Opus 5.5) translation has a dropped word ("illness and has"); presumably the gloss for لاحظی (also لاحض in a later bead), whose sense the translation leaves open.

24 باید که از غلامان نوکریه عملدار دو سه نفر و یک آدم از شاگردپیشه گان معتبران را بگذرهای [18]محکومتان بقراولی تعیین کنید

Two or three persons from the service-staff of the official, and one person from the reputable junior scribal staff, must be appointed by you to sentry duty at the transit points under your jurisdiction.

25 که باخبری کنند کدام آدمیکه از طرف کابل و هرات آید احتیاط کرده بینند

They should keep watch and carefully inspect any persons arriving from the direction of Kabul and Herat.

26 اگر صحت باشد منع نکنند †1

If they are healthy, they should not be prevented from passing.

†1 setting up a quarantine for people coming in from Afghanistan; deputizing officials to guard the passages in from Afghanistan, inspect people coming in to see if they are sick; allow them to pass if they are healthy

27 [19]و کدامیکه لاحض کسل مند باشد او را نگذرانده باز بولایتش رفتنی شود و جوابدهند که بولایتش رود

Any who are unwell should not be allowed to pass, but should be sent back to their province and informed that they must return home.

QUERY (Opus 5.5), minor جواب دادن in Bukharan/Tajik usage (cf. Tajik чавоб додан) is likely "dismiss, send off, give leave" rather than "inform"; the translation's overall sense survives either way.

28 اگر نرفتنی شده بمحکوم دولتخانهٔ †1 †2 [10]عالی میگذشته باشد و یا بمحکوم ارس گذشتنی شود

If they refuse to go voluntarily, they should be handed over to the jurisdiction of the Exalted Government, or to Russian authorities.

†1 but send them back to their home province if they are sick; if they don't comply, send them to Bukharan officials

†2 raftanī: future tense

QUERY (Opus 5.5) the translation ("handed over to ... Russian authorities") and the comment in the following bead ("detain them also if they are heading for Russian territory") read this passage differently. گذشتنی شود / میگذشته باشد ("be passing on / be about to pass into") favors the comment: if the sick person doesn't turn back but is heading on into Bukharan-governed or Russian territory, detain him. Moderate confidence.

29 و بمهمانجا نگاهداشته معلوم کنند وجهش را عرض کنید

Keep them in a guesthouse and determine their condition; report accordingly.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) بمهمانجا may be بهمانجا (به همانجا, "right there, at that same place") with a stray م; that reading fits the syntax better than "guesthouse." Also وجهش more likely "his reason/purpose [for travelling]" than "his condition." Moderate confidence on both; recheck image.

30 طبیب رفته احوال او را می بیند و اگر †1 لاحظی[11] او بواسطهٔ طبابت شود و طبابت کرده دعا میکرد

A doctor should go and examine their condition, and if their illness is confirmed through medical examination, treat them and pray [for their recovery].

†1 detain them also if they are heading for Russian territory; and have a doctor inspect them

31 و قراولان احتطیاط نموده باخبری کنند که مبادا آن بچهار ولایت و مزار شریف[12] هم پیدا نشود

The sentries should exercise caution and remain vigilant, so that this [illness] does not appear in the Four Provinces and Mazar-i Sharif as well.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) احتطیاط for احتیاط (sic or transcription slip). چهار ولایت and مزار شریف are not tagged <location>, unlike کابل and هرات.

32 و اگر شود زود خبرش را دهند دانسته عرض کنید

And if it does [appear], they should quickly report it; once you have verified the situation, report it [accordingly].

33 و نیز بقراولان تعیین کنید که از آینده و رونده خذمتانه گفته تشویش ندهند [†1]

Furthermore, direct the sentries that they should address those coming and going courteously and not cause them disturbance.

†1 so far, no reports of sickness in Chahar Wilayat or Mazar-i Sharif; but report immediately if it appears

QUERY (Opus 5.5) خذمتانه (= خدمتانه) is a noun, "gratuity, fee for service," not an adverb "courteously." Read: "do not harass those coming and going by demanding a service fee [from them]," i.e. an anti-extortion instruction to the sentries. Moderate-to-fairly confident; check Dehkhoda s.v. خدمتانه. (ذ for د is regional orthography, not an error.)

COMMENT new narratio section:

narratio #nar

34 تصدق سر مبارکعالیحضرتم شوم[113]

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) May I be a sacrifice for the blessed head of my Majesty.

35 از روی فرمایش و مهربانی جنابصاحبدولتم فوراً دو سه نفر از غلامان نوکریهٔ عملدار و یکنفر از شاگرد پیشه خود دریندرکهای راه آدمان کابل و هرات میگذشته گی[114] فرموده از روی سپارش جنابعالیسیدم تعیین نمودم

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) In accordance with the command and kindness of my Lord of Fortune, I immediately appointed two or three of the official's service-staff and one of my own junior scribes to the [crossings?] on the road by which people from Kabul and Herat pass, as was commanded, according to the instruction of His Excellency my master,

QUERY (Opus 5.5) دریندرکهای unclear. Possibly در بندرگاه‌های (river landings/crossing points, cf. Amu Darya ferries) or a form of دربند (pass). Speculative; flag as unclear if the image doesn't settle it.

36 که رفته استاده آدمان میگذشته گی را تحقیق کرده پرسیده احوالات ولایتهای مذکور[115] و آدمان میگذشته گی را خوب فهمیده باینجانب معلوم مینماید

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) so that they go and stand [there], examine those passing through, inquire into conditions in the said provinces and about the passers-by, understand them well, and inform me,

37

که انشا الله تعالی [16]اینغلام نادان هیچمدان از روی غلامی و خذمتکاری بجنابعالیمولایم معلوم میکنم

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) so that, God Most High willing, I, this ignorant, know-nothing slave, will in servitude and service inform His Excellency my master.

38

بجنابصاحب معلوم شود گفته عرض [17]بنده گی

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) Saying "Let it be known to my lord," [this is] the petition of servitude.

39

آلهی الله تعالی جنابعالیحضرتمسالهای سال و قرنهای بیشمار در مسند عدالت و حکمرانی [18]در سریر سلطنت و جهانبناهی همیشه سلامت داشته عدوان دین مسلمنین را مقهور گرداناد

DRAFT (Opus 5.5) O God! May God Most High keep my Majesty ever safe for years upon years and countless centuries upon the seat of justice and rule, upon the throne of sovereignty and world-protection, and may He vanquish the enemies of the religion of the Muslims.

QUERY (Opus 5.5) مسلمنین presumably مسلمین.

40

[19]تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر [20]تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصی تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصی [21]تلطقصیر تلطقصیر تلطقصی untranslated

QUERY (Opus 5.5) no preliminary translation offered. Looks like a repeated closing or line-filler formula, possibly involving تقصیر; I don't recognize it.